

Charles Shaw Chardonnay Judged California's Best – Who Knew?!

Charles Shaw 2005 California Chardonnay Wins Double Gold at California State Fair

Have you heard the buzz? California's wine world turned upside down – pricewise – this summer when the Charles Shaw 2005 California Chardonnay (yep – “Two Buck Chuck”) was judged the Best Chardonnay from California at the California State Fair Commercial Wine Competition.

In a blind tasting, top wine judges awarded Charles Shaw Chardonnay 98 points, a double gold, and the accolades of “Best of California” and “Best of Class.”

Ok, we admit it; we're bursting with pride! We raise our glasses to Charles Shaw Chardonnay. Congratulations on being fresh, fruity and well-balanced!

In addition to the award-winning Chardonnay, under the Charles Shaw label Trader Joe's carries four additional varietals: Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Sauvignon Blanc and Shiraz. All Charles Shaw wines are available only at Trader Joe's stores and are priced from $1.99 to $3.49.
